

Dealing Restriction Application

A Dealing Restriction can be applied to restrict the transfer or establish of a vehicle where there is an ownership dispute. This restriction will only be placed where documentary evidence that legal proceedings have commenced or about to commence can be provided.

Important Information, please read the following.

All applications for dealing restrictions will be approved or declined at the discretion of the Manager, Customer Administration Unit (CAU). This restriction will only stop the transfer of the vehicle in question or establish of registration if the vehicle is unregistered. It will not prevent the renewal of the registration. If an application is made for the transfer of the registration, the person who initially applied for the restriction will be notified by telephone or mail. The restriction may only be lifted at the written request of the person who originally applied for it, or via a Court Order. The restriction will be automatically lifted at the end of 12 months from the date of application unless a further application is submitted on this form.

Before a restriction can be placed on Transport for NSW records, the following information is required from the applicant;

- A completed application form that includes a daytime contact telephone number.
- NSW Driver licence or suitable proof of identity (POI). A list of suitable POI documents is available on the Transport for NSW website at roads-waterways.transport.nsw.gov.au or by contacting the Contact Centre on 13 22 13.
- Documentary evidence that legal proceedings have commenced or about to commence. (If not able to be supplied with this initial application it must be supplied within 28 days or the restriction will be removed without further notice).
- If the applicant requires a further 12 months dealing restriction they will need to provide documentary evidence that the legal proceedings are continuing. (Transport for NSW will not contact the applicant prior to the expiration of the initial 12-month dealing restriction. It will be the responsibility of the applicant to provide any further documentation to extend the dealing restriction).
- Where application is made by a person not appearing on the registration certificate, they must provide one of the following; a Court Order, a Police report and Event number, a Financial Management Order from the State Protective Commissioners Office, a copy of a Will or Testament if the executor of an estate, evidence that the person is one of the company directors, Legal or other documents - these must be approved by the Manager, CAU.
