A motor vehicle can only be registered in the name of a legal entity. For registration purposes a vehicle must be registered in the name of a natural person or an incorporated organisation.

To establish/create a Transport for NSW customer number for a company or other organisation not already on the Transport for NSW system, proof of identity must be provided.

Incorporated organisations are required to provide evidence of incorporation. This can be any of the following:

- Certificate of registration, with Australian Company Number (ACN);
- a current extract of the company, with ACN;
- · Certificate of registration on change of name with ACN;
- a printed extract from the Australian Securities Investment Commission (ASIC) website with ACN;
- Certificate of incorporation issued by the NSW Office of Fair Trading;
- Certificate of registration of a foreign company, with Australian Registered Body Number (ARBN) for companies incorporated overseas.

The representative authority must be filled in if the applicant is not a director or authorised delegate of the organisation. In all cases the authorised representative must provide proof of their identity.
