

To the Local Police Traffic Section,
Under the Transport for NSW Rules of Authorised Crane Inspection Stations (ACIS), Police Service Approval must be obtained to conduct brake tests on public roads. This form is to get approval from the local Police station for brake test to be conducted on the proposed public road by Authorised Examiners operating at the ACIS.

1. Business Details of ACIS

AIS number

Trading name

Business telephone

Contact name

2. Nominated Brake Test Road(s)

Town or Suburb

3. Crane Operator Declaration

Brake Test Road Conditions

The nominated road is of sufficient length (350 metres) to safely conduct the Brake Test

Is it a hard level surface free of gravel or other loose materials

The road nominated for Brake Testing does not contravene any permit conditions applicable to the vehicle(s) being tested.

Crane operator trading name

Business address

 Postcode

Phone number

Name

Title

Signature

Date

day / month / year

4. Police Permission to Test Brakes

(Required if an efficiency meter will be used on public roads)

Under the provisions of the Road Transport Act 2013: the Applicant may test the vehicle's brakes on the road/s named below, provided the tests are carried out in daylight. In conducting these tests, the applicant must comply with all traffic laws and obey any police directions. This permission may be withdrawn at any time. The Police will not be liable for any consequences of the test.

Approved road(s) where brakes may be tested

Town or Suburb

Officer's name

Rank

Signature

Date

day / month / year

Police Station

Police Station Official Stamp

A completed copy of this form to be retained at the Authorised Crane Inspection Scheme (ACIS) station.

Please return this form to: Administration & Accreditation

T 1300 79 11 86 | E ais@transport.nsw.gov.au | PO Box 122, Glen Innes, NSW 2370